Jan Scott Memorial Family Award

Donated by the Dale Scott Family and the Mower Family

This award is in memory of Jan Scott who died from a fall from her horse while on a conditioning ride near their home. Jan and her boys, Kyle and Wade, were a familiar trio at the rides. After Jan's death, Dale picked up the slack and rode with the boys until they were well into their teens.

The family receiving this award is supposed to take care of getting the engraving done and placing their names and year on the traveling trophy. The Mower family also donates an award that the family is able to keep.

Description:

This annual award is given to the family that accumulates the most points in endurance and competitive trail on any number of horses.

How to Qualify:

- ✓ There is no need to nominate.
