Grand River Center 500 Bell Street Dubuque, IA

Friday night: Rosemary LoGuidice, DVM - "Helping your horse reach its maximum potential by finding subtle problems before they become clinical mobility issues.
"Turning on and tuning in" the horse's nervous system to maximize performance.

Saturday: Ida Hammer "Pre-Hab beats Re-Hab - How to support your horse's feet for the long haul"!

Meet your clinicians:

Rosemary J. LoGiudice, DVM (LoGiudice is pronounced either: low-GUY-diss, or: low-GEE-YOU-dih-chay):

She is the owner and clinician at Animal Rehabilitation, Therapy, & Sports Medicine in Yorkville, IL – specializing in sports medicine and physical rehabilitation for dogs and also performing Veterinary Spinal Manipulative Therapy (VSMT) and acupuncture for horses, dogs, and cats. She is also Senior Faculty, teaching veterinary spinal manipulative therapy (for dogs and horses) at the Healing Oasis Wellness Center, Sturtevant, WI. Brief bio:

Dr. Rosemary is a board-certified Diplomate in the American College of Veterinary Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation (DACVSMR) and is also certified in Canine Rehabilitation Therapy (CCRT), Veterinary Acupuncture (CVA – for dogs and horses), Veterinary Spinal Manipulative Therapy (VSMT – for dogs and horses) and is a Fellow in the College of Animal Chiropractic (FCoAC). In addition to currently practicing as a physical rehabilitation and sports medicine veterinarian, Dr. Rosemary is a senior faculty member of the Healing Oasis Wellness Center in Sturtevant, WI, teaching veterinarians and chiropractors in the VSMT (veterinary spinal manipulative therapy for dogs and horses) professional curricula, and guest lecturing in the VMRT (veterinary massage and rehabilitation therapy – for dogs and horses) program.

Dr. Rosemary is also an Officer and on the Board of Directors of the ACVSMR, serving as Secretary, and is a co-author of the chapters on rehabilitation for geriatric dogs and on manipulative therapy and acupuncture in the 2nd edition of Canine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation, edited by Zink and Van Dyke.

Dr. LoGiudice works with performance dogs and horses and has presented on veterinary sports medicine and physical rehabilitation at national veterinary meetings, veterinary colleges, and to owner and breed groups around the country. Helping dogs and horses reach their full potential and providing their owners with information and resources to make it happen is her passion.

Since graduating from the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine in 1981, Dr. LoGiudice has also been an equine practitioner for the first 20 years of practice, working with performance horses including Standardbred racehorses, performance horses in Dressage, 3-day eventing, Western and English pleasure, show jumpers, endurance and competitive racehorses and general riding horses.

Dr. Rosemary enjoys playing and working with her English Cocker Spaniels, Dunkin and Vito, in all kinds of activities, including Hunt Tests, Field Trials and other field work, agility, helping teach at the Healing Oasis as demo dogs, and just having fun!

Rosemary grew up riding horses with JoAnne Gernant, in Geneseo, IL, one of the earliest and long-time UMECRA riders. In the early days of UMECRA (in the 1970's and 80's) Rosemary, who considers JoAnne her "surrogate mother" and one of her dearest friends, competed in Competitive Trail Races on her Arabian horse, JJ Socko, which she got from JoAnne.

Ida Hammer
"Pre-Hab beats Re-Hab
How to support your horses feet for the long haul"

Ida Hammer is the creator and owner of MackinawDells 2 Whole Horse Hoof Care, founded in 2009. She has taught over two thousand people around the globe about hoof care and personally trimmed over 200,000 hooves, making her one of the most experienced trimmers and equine educators in the world. She has been a member and instructor for the AANHCP and the AHA and is a current member and mentor for the PHCP.

Ida's classes, available online and in-person, are based on her own vast experience and learning from other equine professionals such as Dr. Deb Taylor, Dr. Bowker, Pete Ramey, Ray Hunt, Jillian Kreinbring, Dr. Kerry Ridgeway, Deb Davies, and so many more. Ida believes to be a true student of the horse, you never stop learning and growing, and her educational material reflects that hunger to know.

Ida has exercised horses on the track, enjoyed competitive trail rides, trained horses, loved mounted shooting, and has been blessed to have horses with her partner, Ada, for many years. When two of their heart horses were diagnosed as hopeless navicular cases in 1992 and again in 2004, Ida decided to dedicate her life to making the world a better place for horses and the humans who love them.

What could have been a senseless tragedy, instead birthed Mackinaw Dells 2 Whole Horse Hoof Care. There are now over 100 certified trimmers from Ida's program and that number is growing every year to serve more horses. The online classes and revolutionary educational tools have made it possible for people to learn to trim all over the world. Ida is also working on her new book that will be released March 2022.

Ida currently trims 20-30 head a week to keep her hand in the game, and is now focusing on sharing information and teaching future trimmers, horse professionals, and fellow HoofNerds:) All for the love of the horse. Ida's website with more information and inperson class information is:
